HONORARY CITIZEN NOMINATION FORM

The Atherstone Town Council Honorary Citizen Award is a means of paying tribute to the recipient, and recording it for posterity.

The title of Honorary Citizen offers no material honours or special privileges, nor does it entitle the person to participate in the proceedings of Council meetings or any civic or ceremonial events – it is simply for honouring outstanding contributions.

Nominees must have:

- Lived and/or worked and/or has been involved in voluntary work in the town of Atherstone for a minimum of 5 years:
- A proposer from a voter from the community of Atherstone and support from a sitting Councillor;
- Made an outstanding contribution to the town of Atherstone, outside of being a member of a local authority.
