Hi Sally,

The new vicar for St Mary's Atherstone has been chosen and Josh Grimwood has accepted. There will be a formal announcement in due course but you can see how the announcement was received at the church where he is currently a Curate on this link at 18 minutes, Sunday 8th March. It will take a few months before he arrives and it will be Josh's first post as a vicar so we have time to prepare a welcoming message for him when he does. Hopefully he will be in place in time for Remembrance Sunday.

I propose a letter is drafted from this council to greet him, ready to send at the appropriate time.

On a personal note it was a pleasure to have joined the panel of local people meeting with the prospective vicars during the interview process and I feel St Mary's Church have certainly made a very good decision.

Kind regards,

Cllr Chris Jones
